Mrs. D. C. Blair
Montour Falls
New York.

26 January, 1916.

Oh Mutter! What a horrible mistake you made when you asked if Exams were over.
The awful things haven't begun
yet. Mine begin next Wed, and the last one comes the following Mon. P.M. Then I will have a whole week of vacation, but having the Exams crammed into such a short space of time isn't all fun. And all that time, Gladys Striebert will be here, isn't that the limit?
Fri., the night before Bible Exam, we have a party for her, and Sun. a.m. we have a breakfast party.

How are you feeling, mother.
I'm mighty sorry you had to have gypper.
Love to all of you, Eleanor.
